

JOSIAH

A Forgotten Hero of the Abolitionist Movement

ABOUT THE FILM

Josiah Henson, a dynamic man with unyielding principles, overcame incredible odds to escape from slavery with his wife and four children. His life inspired Harriet Beecher Stowe's 1852 novel, Uncle Tom's Cabin, catapulting him to international fame, but the real-life story of Josiah Henson has largely been forgotten.

Including interviews with leading experts and Henson descendants, JOSIAH is a 39-minute documentary that traces Josiah Henson's harrowing journey from slavery in Maryland and Kentucky to freedom in Southwestern Ontario. JOSIAH is a story of courage and tenacity in the face of unimaginable trials, and introduces the world to one of history's greatest lost figures.

FILM DETAILS

- Length: 39 minutes
- Watch the trailer at josiahhenson.com

"If my humble words in any way inspired that gifted lady to write such a plaintive story that the whole community has been touched with pity for the sufferings of the poor slave, I have not lived in vain; for I believe that her book was the beginning of the glorious end."

Josiah Henson, 1876

BRING JOSIAH TO YOUR COMMUNITY

Public screening licenses for most documentaries range from $149.00-249.00, but a government grant has offset much of this cost. JOSIAH will be available for $99.00.

However, we've arranged a special offer in conjunction with the launch of Jared A. Brock's new book, The Road to Dawn: Josiah Henson and the Story that Sparked the Civil War. For public screenings hosted between May 15th and June 15th, a one-time public screening license is just $19USD.

Visit josiahhenson.com/documentary to get the process started. Your screening package will include:

- A DVD copy of the film
- A one-time public screening license to show the film in your community
- A downloadable digital screening kit, including a screening host guide, group discussion questions, publicity materials, and customizable posters

ABOUT THE FILMMAKERS

Jared A. Brock is the author of The Road to Dawn: Josiah Henson and the Story that Sparked the Civil War, and the co-director of Over 18 and Red Light Green Light. He is the co-founder of Boom Documentaries and his writing has appeared in Esquire, Huffington Post, Elite Daily, and Writer's Digest.

David McSparran is the CEO of Bottled Media Productions and the co-founder of Boom Documentaries. A graduate of the Toronto Film school with honours, his work has appeared online and on national TV around the world.

Watch the trailer and learn more at josiahhenson.com